

Leadership Brainery:

AMBASSADOR FELLOWSHIP

Your path to graduate school starts here!

Congratulations on deciding to apply for the Leadership Brainery Ambassador Fellowship and taking the first step towards pursuing an advanced education and professional leadership roles.

The LBAF Application Guides have step-by-step resources to help you submit the strongest application possible. In addition to the guides, be sure to check out the Open House Events and 1:1 Application Support available.

As you work on your application, the Leadership Brainery Team offers this piece of advice:

Be authentic and stand in your somebodiness!

Martin Luther King, Jr. said these words in his “What Is Your Life’s Blueprint?” speech:

“Number one in your life's blueprint should be a deep belief in your own dignity, your own worth, and your own somebodiness.”

The best is yet to come!

Please contact Nicole at nicole@leadershipbrainery.org with any questions regarding the application process.
